

DAILY BOAT TOURS 2015

This year all our tours go to five different canals and rivers – the Fontanka, Kryukov canal, Moyka, Winter canal and, finally, the Neva. Sites along the route include Anichkov palace, Trinity church, St. Nicolas' cathedral, Yusupoff palace, St. Isaac's cathedral, the Hermitage, Winter palace, St. Peter and Paul's fortress, Church on Spillt Blood, the Summer Garden, St. Michael's castle and nearly fifty bridges along the way!

Please, note that this year Anglotourismo does not run any night tours with commentary in English on the regular basis. However, we'll be glad to organize a night cruise with an English-speaking guide for your group. Prior booking is required for this service. Please, enquire at info@anglotourismo.com

As an option, you are welcome to join one of the cruises run by our partner company Neva Travel. The cruises will run daily at 00.00 and 00.30 (more cruises will run on weekends) and depart from the same dock next to Anichkov bridge. Tickets will be available in the ticket booth next to the dock. Please note: these tours run without ANY commentary.

ANGLOTOURISMO BOAT TOURS 2015

HOW TO TAKE A TOUR

First of all – you don't have to book it, just turn up! Anglotourismo Boat Tours leave from a dock on the Fontanka river (Nab. Reki Fontanki 27) next to north western corner of Anichkov Bridge – a famous bridge with the four horse statues right on the main street. Tickets are available in our ticket booth next to the dock. (See map for detail and directions). Please note that the tickets are not assigned to particular seats. We recommend showing up 20–30 minutes before the tour starts – more chances to get the best seats!

ANGLOTURISMO 2015 FREE DAILY WALKING TOUR

Our Free Daily Walking Tour has been designed to let an independent traveler be as flexible as possible while visiting St. Petersburg, it aims at helping our guests familiarize themselves with most important sites in the historical centre, build up itineraries for further independent walks and offers a local's insight into the numerous practical issues first timers have to deal with in a new city. Key features of the tour include Catherine the Great, Rossi's "perfect" street, the Vorontsov palace, Cathedral of Our Lady of Kazan, St. Isaac's Cathedral, WW II, the Bronze Horseman, Peter the Great, Decembrists uprising, Admiralty, the Winter Palace, October Revolution, Church on Spilt Blood, modern life in St. Petersburg.

Besides, you are always welcome to suggest visiting a particular site or covering a particular subject or area you are interested in, provided it does not require a serious detour and other tour-takers are happy with the change of itinerary (which they, normally, are). Just tell your guide and they'll do their best!

WHAT MAKES A GREAT FREE WALKING TOUR?

The answer is very simple. Our guides are not just a bunch of volunteers, but professional city experts, members of Anglotourismo team, who run our regular canal and river cruises. Eager to feel hard ground under their feet once in a while they'll come out of the way to share their knowledge and enthusiasm with our visitors on this informative and interactive walking tour. In fact, they all took part in designing this tour that makes it a perfect selection of the top sites and stories Anglotourismo has to offer!

HOW OUR FREE DAILY WALKING TOUR WORKS

It is a free tour, so you don't have to pay for it. It runs daily rain or shine regardless of the number of participants. Nevertheless, please, note that the guides do not get any compensation for this particular job either from our company or any other sponsor and they run the tour on tips-only basis. Be assured that none of them will be pushing it, but a relevant tip would be very much appreciated as long as you feel the service you received was worth it.

Available: daily from May 11th to September 30th

Time: 10.30

Duration: 3 hours

Cost: FREE, BASED ON TIPS
